

PATTY OWNBY
FORMER PRESIDENT

Prior to May of 2008, Patty Ownby was the President of AAMCI and provided over thirty years of service to the Company. Patty Ownby was truly a pioneer in the affordable housing community. She was recognized in 2008, by the National Affordable Housing Management Association as the recipient of the Industry Statesman Award. She was recognized in 2006, by the National Affordable Housing Management Association as the recipient of the Pioneer in Affordable Housing Award. Mrs. Ownby was instrumental in organizing both SAHMA and NAHMA.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Licensed Real Estate Broker, State of Tennessee
Charter Registered Apartment Manager, (RAM), National Association of Home Builders (NAHB)
President, Knoxville Apartment Council, (KAC), 1978-1979, 1979-1980
RAM Dean
Instructor, Resident Relations and Marketing, Knoxville Apartment Council
President, Apartment Council of Tennessee, (ACT), 1980-1981
Director, Southeastern Affordable Housing Management Association (SAHMA), 1985-present, served as Chairman of Educational Committee, 1987; State of Tennessee Director and Newsletter Editor, 1988-1990; Secretary, 1991; Vice President 1992 - 1994; President-elect, 1995-1996; President 1997
Director, National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA), 1990 - 2007
Chairman, NAHP (Certification Review Board), 1995-1996
Member, Knoxville Board of Realtors, 1978-2008
Member, National Association of Realtors, 1978-2008
Member, National Association of Home Builders, 1975-2008
Member NAHB Multifamily 80's Subcommittee
Member, Knoxville Chamber of Commerce, 1983-2007
Member, RAM Board of Governors, National Association of Home Builders, Life Governor
Member, Midwest Affordable Housing Management Association
Member, National Apartment Association, 1984-2008
Director, Apartment Association of Greater Knoxville 1993 - 2007
Director, NAHMA, Board - 1993 - 2007
NAHP[®]-e, National Affordable Housing Professional Executive, 1994